

THE GRANDPARENT'S PRAYER

Yield to the Divine and Be the Blessing

The Grand Parent's Prayer

By Rev. Greta Sesheta

In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word Was God.

With gratitude I take this precious moment, in this rarefied atmosphere of Love, to recognize God as all there is.

God is the One Power, One Presence, One Infinite Being, One Life and One Love.

God is known by many names- Spirit, Light, Heavenly Father, Divine Mother, Loving Presence.

God is ruler and creator of this entire Universe and the Uni-Verse, the One- Word, is Love.

Another word for God.

God as Love is eternally expressing, evolving, reflecting and radiating All That Is. This Loving Presence is everywhere and I am One with it. I am an instrument for Its Will and Its Way.

And since there can be no other-ness, no separation in the seamless creation that is God, throughout all time and space and form and formlessness, throughout all generations and dimensions, I know this same truth for and about my grandchildren.

They are One with God.

And in truth I recognize them as the Beloved of God, the only Begotten Ones, for I know God loves each of us as if there were only One of us.

I am grateful to be able to bless my Grandchildren. To know they are here to reveal the Face of God through their living, loving and being.

Scripture says that Grandchildren are the crowning glory of their elders.

I delight in and give thanks for these precious, wondrous, and beautiful children.

Each one is a child of the Universe, no less than the trees and the stars.

Each one has a right to be here, and to be here in joy, exuberance and well-being.

Each one is The Delight of God and is here to radiate and to reflect only Love.

Nothing needs to be added or subtracted from them.

Nothing needs to be changed or challenged.

Each one is made in the spiritual image and likeness and out of the very essence of God.

And the perfection of God cannot be denied.

Nor can any hurt, harm or danger come near them.

I know that their physical, emotional, mental and spiritual needs are all met in God in time and on time, for God is their Source, Supply and Sufficiency.

I know they are embraced by unconditional Love always, and that God makes the crooked ways straight for them.

This is the Truth I know.

I bless and release to the nothingness any thought of fear or doubt, disappointment or discouragement.

I trust in the goodness and the grace of God.

I have faith in the Love of God that heals everything, including any experience of disharmony, unrest or unhappiness.

I lean into the Lord, the Perfect Law of Life, and I let It have Its Way with me and with my Grandchildren.

I know that I am divinely guided and directed in all of my relationships, especially those with my grandchildren.

I rejoice in this.

I know Harmony, Peace, Compassion, Forgiveness, Patience and a Love so true that it can never be tarnished or diminished in any way.

Whatever is needed, desired or required is present here and now as the life of my Grandchildren.

This is the Truth I know.

It is what I give thanks for as I release this Word knowing that it cannot return to me void but must return fulfilled, pressed down and running over.

I am grateful.

In the name and the nature of All That Is Righteous and Good, I release this prayer and rest in the blessed assurance that it is already answered.

Thank you God.

And so it is!

Amen
